OUTLINES.

Rival managers of the Democratic and Republican committees issued statement from headquarters in New York yesterday, expressing the utmost confident for their candidates and predicting a sweeping victory. Chairman Mack set an estimate of 333 electoral votes for Bryan, and Chairman Hitchcock placed the figures for Taft at 325 ——W. J. Bryan's tour through Illinois yesterday was triumphant and at the conclusion of twenty-four speeches he stated that it was one of the greatest days he had experienced during the campaign——Nine prisoners implicated in the lynching of Captain Rankin, in Tennessee, were yesterday carried to Nashville——William H. Taft ended his campaign in New York State yesterday——Secretary Rice of the South Carolina Audubon Society, yesterday obtained warrants against four millinery concerns of Columbia, for violation of laws for the protection of non-game birds——Rear Admiral, commander of the second squadron of the American battleship fleet, yesterday made an official call to Prince Yu Lang, on board the German cruiser——A Virginia Military Institute cadet dies from injuries received in a game played yesterday ——The Democrats at State headquarters claim a majority in this State of 40,000 to 50,000——Mrs. Frank Sherelife, of Desmoines, Ia., says she does not believe it is her husband who has been caught in Tennessee on the charge of being the noted bandit——President Roosevelt's attention is called to the pernicious activity of certain federal office holders in West Virginia——In Louisiana the Republicans have nominated Congressional candidates in four districts and there is much interest over the contest because of this. In other Southern States the political fight seems to be an evenly one-sided one and if little interest——President Roosevelt issued the usual Thanksgiving proclamation yesterday——New York Markets: Money on call nominal. Time loans very dull and steady. Flour lower to sell. Wheat easy, No. 2 red 1.08 3-4 to 1.09 elevator. Corn steady No. 2, 77 1-4 nominal elevator. Oats dull, mixed 52 to 52 1-2. Rosin quiet. Turpentine quiet at 40. Cotton quiet middling uplands 9.35, middling gulf 9.60.

Vote early Tuesday and then join in the hilarity of the Elksfest.

Walter Henry found he had struck a snag when he ran up against that preacher in Colorain.

For President, Andrew Carnegie, of Scotland. For Vice-President, John D. Rockefeller, of Ohio.

Governor Patterson, of Tennessee, means business, as some of that State will find out before he is done with them.

You Democrats who are not going to vote for Bryan should remember that to refrain from doing so is to cast half a vote for the nominee of the Republican party.

Every Democrat in the State should go to the polls day after tomorrow and vote the full ticket. That's the only way to show yourself to be a true and genuine Democrat.

Vice Presidential Candidate Sherman has not any time just now to be making accusations of graft against the Democratic national candidates. He is kept busy trying to clear his own record.

Is it because Bryan, eight-and-twelve years ago, advocated certain measures you did not endorse good reason why you should help elect the Republican candidate who stands on a platform of today that you do not and no Democrat can endorse?

You Democrats who are thinking about not voting for Bryan g've the whole political situation careful consideration today and tomorrow. If you do so we believe you will come to the conclusion that it is your duty to vote for him.

The Daily States newspaper, of New Orleans, announces that it has raised over twenty-one thousand dollars by popular subscriptions for the Bryan campaign fund. This is an evidence of the great interest the people are taking in Bryan's election.

What absurdity for the Republicans to try to make it appear that Rockefeller pretends to be for Taft in order to injure his chances. Roosevelt ought to have sense enough to know that the whole country understands the object of that "official declaration" of his on the subject.

According to the Republicans, except those who are really scared about the outcome of the election, the Democrats will stand no show at all on next Tuesday; but it will be found that the scared ones are much nearer right than those who put on an appearance of extreme confidence.

NOW THE OPENING!

Elksfest Opens in Blaze of Glory at Seventeenth and Princess

ON TOMORROW NIGHT

Final Meeting of Heads of All Departments With Manager Buckley Last Night—The Parades. Other Notes.

At a final conference of all the committee chairmen with Exalted Ruler Leitner and Manager Buckley last night in the Temple on North Front street, all arrangements for a brilliant opening of the Elksfest out at Elksplatz, Seventeenth and Princess streets, tomorrow evening, were completed and nothing now remains but for the big festival to open in a blaze of glory.

The merchants and business men of the city yesterday got wise to the advantage of decorating their places and Front with its intersecting streets now presents a pleasing study in Elks and National colors. A large number of concession people reached the city yesterday and the shows will begin to arrive as early as today. Among the features will be Buckskin Bill's Wild West Show, Francis Ferarri's great trained animal exhibit; Ruhl's European Flea Circus; the Russian Midget Prince, one of the greatest attractions of the country of which more is said in another column; Lamonth's Dog, Cat and Monkey Show; the Aztec Children and others too numerous to mention. Then King & Tucker's Railroad Show will get in on Tuesday evening in time to spread canvas for the big circus on Wednesday. Many people have gotten the mistaken idea that an admission will be charged to the grounds. This is entirely erroneous. The grounds will be free and the paid attractions may be patronized at will. There is also a false impression as to the circus tickets. These admit to only one performance. These are now in the hands of many school children, who are working for a prize for the one disposing of the greatest number.

Tuesday the big feature will be the civic and floral parade. This will start from the City Hall at 3 o'clock and all members of Wilmington Lodge of Elks are ordered by the Exalted Ruler to report at the temple by 2:15 P. M. of that day in order to join the pageant in a body. The revised route of the parade, if this is found necessary, will be given Tuesday morning.

The big feature Wednesday will be the Elks' Burlesque Circus Parade and this will start from the grounds at 17th and Princess streets, according to decision reached last night, and the route will be given in Wednesday morning's paper. The Fort Caswell Military Band has been engaged for the entire week and will daily give concerts down town and out at the grounds. A large majority of the shows will open Monday evening and all certainly by Tuesday afternoon. The opening will consist of a number of formalities including the reading of greetings from prominent men all over the country and probably an expression from the Mayor of the city. The Tidewater Power Company has arranged for special cars and every precaution has been taken by the Elks to see that the best order is maintained on the grounds. A special committee of 25 Elks have been named as a "vigilance committee" to see that no untoward word or act is used to mar the perfect success of the entire affair. Mayor Springer yesterday issued orders to the police to strictly enforce the law in regard to the throwing of confetti on the streets. He has given special instructions in regard to what is known as the "confetti bomb." which is held to be dangerous to the eyesight and a positive nuisance. Of course, confetti will be used on the grounds but none will be tolerated on the streets and the "bombs" will be barred from the grounds as a danger to people.

FUNERAL OF MR. REGISTER.

Impressive Service Over Remains Held Yesterday Afternoon.

The funeral of Mr. William LeRoy Register, whose death occurred in New Orleans, was held at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Fifth Street Methodist church, Rev. K. D. Holmes, the pastor officiating. A large concourse of acquaintances of the deceased together with the members of the Boys' Brigade, in full uniform, attended the last sad rites, and paid a striking tribute of respect to the deceased.

At the conclusion of the impressive service the remains were conveyed to Bellevue cemetery, where they were laid to rest. Many sympathizing friends of the family sent beautiful floral tributes. The pall-bearers were as follows: Messrs. C. D. Davis, J. V. Fergus, B. F. King, Jr., W. W. Davis, J. W. Taylor and J. Love Davis.

DAY'S GRIDIRON RESULTS

Wilmington High School Defeats Goldsboro—Princeton and Army Tie, While Indians Score Against the Middies.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Goldsboro, N. C., Oct. 31.—The first game of football played in Goldsboro since 1899-1900 was played here today between the Wilmington and Goldsboro high school teams. The final score was ten to five in favor of the Wilmington team.

Wilmington scored first by a beautiful drop kick from the 35-yard line by Schulken. Then there was no more scoring in the first half, the ball remaining in possession of Goldsboro. In the second half by steady line plunging by Aycock, Goldsboro carried the ball over for a touchdown, but on account of a technicality the try at goal was not allowed thus making the score 5 to 4 in favor of Goldsboro. Soon thereafter Wilmington was forced to punt and on Goldsboro's fumble in receiving the punt Emerson, for Wilmington caught the ball on the bounce, carrying it over for a touchdown. Schulken kicked goal, score, Wilmington 10, Goldsboro 5.

During the remainder of the game the ball was in possession of Goldsboro and by constant plunges by Aycock, captain and full back of Goldsboro's team, was carried to Wilmington's four-yard line when time was called.

This game is considered a victory by the Goldsboro team as only one of the team ever played before, not even having lined up against a scrub team.

Line-up:

Goldsboro		Wilmington.
Spence, King	L.E.	Clarke
Thomas	L.T.	Strange
Freeman	L.G.	Smith

Indians Defeat Middies.

Annapolis, Md., Oct. 31.—On a fast gridiron under smiling skies and in the presence of a large crowd, the Indians from Carlisle administered their first defeat to the Midshipmen. The final score was Carlisle 16, Navy 6. For the first half the middies had the best of it until just before time was called. Probably the midshipmen's best chance for a score came almost immediately after the contest opened but they failed to make it and just as the half was drawing to a close Carlisle began the series of four scores, all of them placement goals, beautifully made by Balonti, that made up Carlisle's total of 16.

Princeton and Army Tie.

West Point, N. Y, Oct. 31—Princeton met the Military Academy cadets at football here this afternoon for the first time in two years and the result was a nothing to nothing tie.

In the first half honors were about even, but in the second the visitors threatened the score repeatedly, almost from the time the whistle blew. West Point was dangerous only once, in the first half, when by a series of rushes and fake kicks the ball was put on Princeton's 40-yard line.

Fatality at Lexington.

Lexington, Va., Oct. 31.—The score at the end of the first half today was V. M. I. 57, Roanoke 0. The second half was not played on account of an accident to Cadet G. Cook Ferebee, of Norfolk, who later died from concussion of the brain as the result of being tackled while running with the ball as left half back.

Other Games.

Republicans Issue Misleading Statement as to State Appropriation for Immigration

CAPT. Wm. H. DAY DEAD

Sensational Report From Statesville Denied by Adjutant General—Big Transportation Company For Logging Purposes.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 31.—Democratic State headquarters were advised by wire tonight that another sneak circular was being circulated in the State, appealing to the laboring people to vote the Republican ticket, by charging that the last Legislature appropriated $50,000 to bring the pauper labor of Europe to North Carolina to compete with our labor. Chairman Eller says in regard to the circular:

"The Republican Federal statutes opened our ports to the pauper labor of Europe and admitted to our shores a million each year. The great trusts which dominate the Republican party and are protected by that party, give employment to this labor in competition with Americans. At the last day of the campaign the Republicans attempt by garbling the law of North Carolina to fool and prejudice the laboring man.

"This circular charges that $50,000 was appropriated to encourage such immigration. What are the facts?

"Chapter 924, Acts 1907, provided that our Agricultural Department may use annually not exceeding $5,000 from the funds of the Department and use $5,000 additional not otherwise appropriated from the State Treasury. For what purpose? For advertising the State and its resources, so as to attract capital, compiling information and aiding the farmer and other employers of labor in securing desirable immigration to the State, such immigration, except a few counties, being confined to the United States, Canada and other nations of Teutonic, Celtic or Saxon origin and that only a desirable class of immigrants be so secured. The passage of the law was demanded by the farmer and their department managers and pays for this work.

"It is known that much capital has been attracted to the State and a few Scotch have been induced to come to North Carolina and find homes with some of our farmers.

"Is this the last of their swarm of false circulars? We can stand a few more; bring them on. Intelligence of white laborer of North Carolina has been underestimated by the author of the circular. He knows the purpose and effect of the North Carolina statute, and he knows more than that. He knows that the Democratic platform proposes to treat him as a man, while the Republican platform proposes to treat him as a chattel."

A sensational report here that the shipment of one thousand rounds of ammunition from National Guard headquarters here to Company E, First Infantry, Statesville, was because of threatened effort to take Will Graham, the negro who criminally assaulted Miss Pearl Tucker, near Concord, October 12th and lynch him, is denied by Adjutant General T. R. Robertson, who insists that there is nothing at all unusual about the shipment and that so far as any information he has, there is not the least indication of any effort at lynching when the negro is taken from the State penitentiary here back to Concord for trial Nov. 14th.

The Champion Transportation Co., with $100,000 capital to construct two flumes up Balsam Mountain, in Jackson and Swain counties, one seven and the other thirty miles, for logging purposes, was chartered today by the State, Omer Carr, C. S. Bryant and R. B. Robertson being the principal incorporators. One is to be from Addie, on the Murphy division of the Southern, up Scott's Creek, and the other from Foeing station, on the same road, up Occona and Lufty river and Soco creek thirty miles to the top of Balsam Mountain.

Captain William H. Day, one of the most prominent lawyers of this State, died at his home here this afternoon aged 66 years. He had been partially paralyzed two years, but his last illness had confined him to his home only a few weeks. He was a native of Halifax county and served with the First North Carolina Infantry as captain. He married Miss Mary Edmonds of Weldon, who survives him.

Presiding Elder at Trinity.

THE ELECTION RETURNS

Bulletins Will be Displayed as Fast as Received by Morning Star Through Courtesy of the Bijou Management.

Through the courtesy of Messrs. Howard & Wells, proprietors of The Bijou, on North Front street, the Morning Star has arranged to display on Tuesday night all the latest and most complete election returns by stereopticon on a screen opposite the office on Princess street and the public is cordially invited to come down that evening and see what fate has in store for them.

These returns will be flashed even before they are handled in the office across the street in plain view of all and will be as complete as it will be possible to get them by the Associated Press, special service of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company and special dispatches over both the Postal and Western Union telegraph wires. None but reliable reports will be handled and an effort will be made to display at the earliest possible moment just how the county, State and Nation have gone politically. It is unnecessary to say that these bulletins will be given absolutely without bias and the "best in the shop" will be thrown right out on the screen in full view of all. Except in very rare cases we cannot undertake to furnish this information by telephone and our friends rather than calling up are asked to come right down and see for themselves. Arrangements have been made by which the bulletins will be given the moment they are received without delay in transcribing and the news will go directly from the wire to the screen.

The Western Union has arranged to give its bulletin service to quite a number of organizations including the Cape Fear Club, Republican Headquarters, Chamber of Commerce, Evening Dispatch and Elks. The returns will come by direct wire from the Commercial News Department in New York and will be the best the company is able to gather in that busy mart. Mr. A. B. Robinson, of the local Western Union offices, will go to Mullins, S. C., to handle a special wire for the people there and Mr. Joe Murrell, of the local office will go to Whiteville, N. C. The local office will also supply operators for Mt. Olive and Jacksonville, N. C. Manager W. G. Sale will handle the service for the Wilmington subscribers in person.

In addition to these returns will be received by Postal and otherwise at Democratic headquarters in the Smith building, at the Y. M. C. A. and at quite a number of other places. With the excellent service that the Star will be able to furnish from half a dozen different sources with a direct Associated Press wire in its building from New York and Washington, the average man should be able to go to sleep Tuesday night at a reasonably early hour with some idea of whether or not the country is safe.

HIGH SCHOOL VICTORIOUS.

Won From Goldsboro 10 to 5 in Football Game There Yesterday.

A telegram from Mr. J. B. Huff, the manager, brought the very welcome news to hundreds of friends and admirers here yesterday evening that the High School football squad of this city was victorious in the game with the high school of the last named city yesterday afternoon by the very decisive score of 10 to 5. One goal from the field and one touchdown were responsible for the victory, the Wilmington contingent playing rings all round their adversaries of the Wayne county capital. The team will return this morning and will no doubt be received with great enthusiasm by their friends.

Great interest was manifested in the game by the young people of the public schols here yesterday afternoon and one man in the office had to be delegated to give his entire time to telephone inquiries for three hours before and after the telegraphic reports to the paper began to come in.

CAMPAIGN IN WAYNE

Hon. E. J. Justice Spoke to Large Crowd in Opera House at Goldsboro.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Goldsboro, N. C., Oct. 31.—The Messenger Opera House was the scene tonight of one of the ablest campaign speeches ever heard in Wayne county. Hon. E. J. Justice was the speaker and he was introduced by Mr. M. T. Dickinson, county chairman. Mr. Justice spoke about one hour and a half, discussing the guaranty of deposits, and the railorad question. It was an able, eloquent speech to a large and attentive audience. Ex-Governor C. B. Aycock will speak here Monday night, a treat every citizen eagerly awaits

Back From Synod.

Wilmington pastors and laymen, who attended the meeting of Synod at Newbern the past week, returned to the city yesterday and were delighted with the entertainment received in the City of Elms. Great gratification is expressed here that the next annual session of the Synod will be held at Red Springs, N. C., upon invitation of Rev. C. G. Vardell.

RESTRAINING ORDER

Local Interests in Rockingham Power Co., Protect Their Rights in The Court.

SUIT IS STARTED HERE

Would Declare Voting Trust Illegal Upon Complant Filed by Holder of Common Stock—Was Heard at Clinton.

Alleging that a voting trust or agreement entered into by the common stockholders of the Rockingham Power Company which is developing the great water power for electric purposes at Blewett's Falls, in Richmond and Anson counties, is illegal under the laws of North Carolina and that Sidney Z. Mitchell, of New York, and R. L. Warner, of Massachusetts, who compose this voting trust, are contemplating and endeavoring to use their power in voting same to wreck and ruin the interests of the holders of the common stock, in that they are attempting and intending to put through and carry out what they call a plan of reorganization, creating a new issue of common stock in which the present holders are not taken care of, R. M. Sheppard, identified with the interests of Hugh MacRae & Co., of this city, has secured through his attorneys Messrs. Davis & Davis, a restraining order enjoining Mitchell and Warner from using or exercising any power or control over the common stock of the company and citing them to show cause before Judge C. C. Lyon, of the State Superior Court, sitting in chambers at Kinston, Wednesday, November 18th, why the order should not be made permanent why the present officers of the company elected by the voting trust should not be declared null and void and other officers be elected, and the plaintiff be given 10 shars of stock upon his surrender of certain receipts from the Knickerbocker Trust Co., which is holding the certificates and which is financial agent of the power company, being unable to carry out its obligation to finance the company by reason of its suspension during the recent panic.

The injunction was secured by Mr. Junius Davis before Judge Lyon in chambers at Clinton Friday night and a copy of the same was served here yesterday upon Mr. Donald MacRae, one of the directors of the company. It is understood that the litigation will not interfere with the construction work at Blewett's Falls and that the action is merely taken to protect local interests The outcome of the hearing to make the order permanent will be looked forward to with interest as affecting one of the most important industrial projects ever undertaken in this section of the State.

The complaint alleges that under its charter the Rockingham Power Company has issued one and a half millions of common stock and $1,100,000 of preferred stock; that in addition to the same, the company has also executed an issue of $2,200,000 of first mortgage bonds secured by a mortgage upon all of its property, plant and machinery and also all after acquired property; that the company was chartered for developing electric power by the construction of a plant at Blewett's Falls in Richmond and Anson counties; that the defendants Sidney Z. Mitchell is a resident of New York and defendant R. L. Warner, of Massachusetts, and the Knickerbocker Trust Co., is a New York corporation, to float and sell bonds and stocks of other corporations and also to advance money upon the pledge or mortgage securing same; that after organization of the power company an agreement dated March 11th, 1907, and called a stock deposit agreement was entered into and executed by the holders of the common stock under and by which the common stock of the company was pooled into a voting trust and Henry A. Pressey, Sidney Z. Mitchell and Robert L. Warren were constituted a voting committee or trust; that by and under said agreement all of the holders of the common stock of the power company assigned and transferred all of their stock to said committee and gave them the exclusive right to vote upon the said common stock at any meeting of the stockholders of the power company and any amendment of its charter and, in fact to give to the voting committee the absolute and plenary power to control all of the common stock and to vote for any measure and purpose that the members of the company might think right and proper. In addition the stock deposit agreement gave to the committee the power at any time to withdraw the said common stock and transfer it to any holding company to be organized under the laws of any such State as the committee might select and in exchange therefor, take and transfer to the Knickerbocker Trust Company common stock of such holding company, the same to be taken in the names of and to be held and voted by the committee. That by the agreement it was agreed that the committee should hold all of the common stock of the power company for three years after first installation of the power plant had been completed and placed in operation and also until the

THAT CLEVELAND LETTER.

In the prosecution of Broughton Brandenberg for forgery in the manufacture of the alleged Cleveland letter advocating Taft's election which the accused sold to the New York Times, Miss L. M. Bacon, who has a typewriter office in New York city, has made an affidavit in regard to typewriting the alleged Cleveland letter in which she says, according to its publication in the Times, the same paper which published the alleged Cleveland letter:

"On August 10, 1908, Broughton Brandenberg, known to me as a writer of magazine articles, came to my office at No. 47 West Thirty-fourth street, and said he had some manuscript which he wished to have typewritten. He ordered two carbon copies in addition to the original copy. When finished the article made nine pages, or a total of about 3,000 words. To the best of my memory it was practically all in Mr. Brandenberg's handwriting. Although this was the first work I had ever done for Mr. Brandenberg, the handwriting was the same as that used in subsequent manuscript which I had typewritten for him. I did numerous pieces of work for Mr. Brandenberg during August and early in October, the last order being filled on Oct. 8, 1908.

"Furthermore, when I began typewriting the manuscript, which I afterward recognized as an article entitled "Grover Cleveland on the Campaign and His Prophecy of Its Result," published in The New York Times of Sunday, August 30, 1908, Mr. Brandenberg had not finished writing it, but he completed the article seated at my rolltop desk while I was typewriting the first portion.

"Mr. Brandenberg came over to me several times, read passages of the article to me, and asked if I did not think they were in Mr. Cleveland's best style. He also asked me if I did not think that the article would sell well to a magazine or newspaper."

It is being demonstrated more clearly every day that the alleged Cleveland letter was a forgery, gotten up perhaps more as a money making scheme on the part of Brandenberg than as a political scheme on the part of the Republicans to aid their candidate.

READ YOUR TICKET CAREFULLY.

We wish to warn Democratic voters against the possible appearance of bogus Democratic electoral ballots at the polls on election day. We do not charge that any of our Republican friends who are managing this campaign for their party will attempt such a thing, but it has been done in the past and there is bare possibility of it being attempted at this time. As a matter of precaution we here give our readers the names of the twelve Democratic electors as they should appear on the ticket. The two presidential electors at large are Josiah William Bailey, of the Fourth congressional district and Walter Murphy, of the eighth. The electors for the congressional districts, but who have to be voted for in the entire State, are for the districts in the order in which they are here named: Walter L. Cohoon, Noah James Rouse, Hampton D. Williams, Rufus S. McColn, Powell W. Glidewell, Henry L. Cook, John T. Bennett, John L. Gwaltney, Gaston Ellis Gardner and William W. Zachary. Every Democratic voter before depositing his ballot should read it carefully and see that all the names thereon are as above given. They should not be content with simply looking at the first and last names on the ballots. Scan your ticket closely and be sure that you deposit one that is correct. All Democratic voters should do the same as to the State ticket. The Star has run that at the head of its editorial column day after day for a long time. Any voter can compare his ballots with that and make himself sure that he is making no mistake.

POLITICAL INDICATIONS.

The article below is not intended as a prediction; it is not the utterance of a prophet. It is nothing more than a forecast based on surface indications as they now appear. It must not be overlooked that material changes may occur before the close of the polls next Tuesday, but it is our opinion that any such changes will be favorable to the Democrats. While realizing that many unusual features enter into the present campaign, we give the following summary which our readers must take for what it is worth, accepting the figures as only approximate:

The result of the presidential election is in doubt, it all depending on whether Carnegie and the Steel Trust and Rockefeller and the Standard Oil or "the people shall rule."

The Democratic majority in North Carolina will be 25,000 to 30,000.

The vote in the Eighth and Tenth congressional districts of this State will be close, with the chances favoring the Democrats.

The total vote of New Hanover will be 2,800, of which the Republicans and "What Nots" will poll 350 to 400.

Apathy, indifference and resentment indicate a reduced Democratic vote in the State at large.

The Legislature will be Democratic in both branches by a very safe but reduced majority.

A SIGNIFICANT STRAW VOTE.

The big dailies of the Northern cities have gone more generally and more systematically into taking straw ballots on the presidential election this year than during any previous campaign. These straw ballots are given as indications of public sentiment or preference of the general run of the people for the next President. The most significant vote of the kind taken during the present campaign was that of the Washington Post of all the attendants of the theatres of that city on a certain night this week. Although the residents of that city have no vote therein the capital's population is composed of citizens from all parts of the Union who only temporarily reside in that city and do not give up their citizenship in the States from which they come to Washington to accept office under the Government. Therefore the residents of Washington represent more fully all parts of the nation than those of any other city and are just as much interested in the outcome of a presidential election as are any others of our people. The Post polled the seven theatres of that city and got every man who would do it to declare his preference for President. The total number of votes cast was 2,992. Out of these Bryan got 1,766, Taft 1,127, Debs 36, Chafin 14, Hisgen 32 and Watson 7. Bryan had a plurality over Taft of 639.

A dispatch to the New York World from Syracuse, N. Y., the home of the Republican candidate for Vice President, gives this incident in connection with Bryan's speech in that city on last Thursday:

"Mr. Bryan had an immense time in 'Sunny Jim' Sherman's town.

"'Here in the home of the Republican candidate for Vice President,' he said, 'I am going to have Republicans repudiate the action of those Republican leaders in their National Convention. I tell you in advance what I am going to do, and I'm going to ask the newspaper men who travel with me to herald it to the world that here in the home of the Rpublican candidate Republicans do not dare to indorse the action of their party in voting down publicity of campaign funds.'

"He then asked every man in the hall, who approved the action of the Democrats in regard to publicity to hold up his hand. Five thousand hands shot into the air and Mr. Bryan smiled.

"'Is there a Republican in the home of the Republican candidate for Vice President who will say he approves of the action of the Republicans in voting down publicity?'

"Not a hand showed."

This would indicate that Mr. Sherman's avowed political methods are not very popular in his home city.

A man who claims to be an expert on timber and forestry says that in this country people are cutting timber at the rate of five hundred feet, board measure, a year for every man, woman and child in this country, while in the countries of Europe the average is only sixty feet. He estimates that at this rate our forests will be exhausted in thirty years, although there is a general impression that the American forests are inexhaustible.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—President Roosevelt, raising his voice in the midst of industrial chaos of his own contriving, prophesies more industrial chaos in case Bryan is elected. What guaranty can he give that "my policies" which brought on the panic last year, will not bring no more panics in the future if Mr. Taft, who adheres to them, shall be the choice of the people? A modest stillness would better become Mr. Roosevelt under the circumstances.—Philadelphia Record.

—When James Schoolcraft Sherman admits that he was engaged in a New Mexico land deal while a member of Congress, denying that "he urged" the passage of a bill through Congress bearing upon it, or that he was aware of any bribery in connection with it and claiming that it was a legitimate private enterprise, he admits enough to establish his unfitness for the Vice Presidency of the United States, because he admits an incapacity to perceive that a public servant must keep himself above suspicion.—News and Courier.

—All the Washington newspapers print from day to day accounts of desperate crimes committed by negroes, and significant indeed is the fact that nearly every account includes a statement of the impudence and defiance of the black criminals when the police attempt to arrest them. Washington, as everybody knows, is governed by Congress—a Republican Congress— and conditions there in relation to the race problem are notoriously so obnoxious that they constitute a problem which the white residents have not solved further than to reach the conclusion that a Democratic administration would curb the evil of negro assertiveness. —Richmond Journal.

As a result of the ravages of the boll weevil many of the cotton planters in Rapides and St. Landry are endeavoring to arouse an interest in the cultivation of sugar cane. Throughout the cotton sections of Louisiana and in portions of Mississippi the cotton sections of Louisiana and in portions of Mississippi the cotton crop has been cut very short by the appearance of the weevil, hence the cotton farmers generally are making efforts to find a way to avert the disaster that threatens. Many are preparing so to diversify their crops as to be able to produce upon the farm much that they were compelled to buy under the old system, to plant cotton only as a surplus crop, and to practice, in its cultivation, the methods recommended by the experts.—New Orleans States.

—Unless the Southern States are willing to abandon their civilization, they must put down the night riders. We do not doubt that many "common" outlaws are taking advantage of the fact that some people of previously good standing have banded together to break the law for commercial reasons. To put down the common night rider it is necessary to suppress the aristocratic night rider also. Any man or body of men that undertakes to interfere with the legitimate rights of other men by a system of terrorism must be met and punished or anarchy reigns. The North Carolinian who admits that he sent a cotton-gin owner a notice threatening that the gin would be burned under certain circumstances ought not to get off with imunity. His excuse that he sent the notice as a friendly act of apprisal is feeble. —Norfolk Landmark.

—Because Georgia is so strongly Democratic the spellbinders have paid but little attention to her in this campaign. Because there has been but such little effort to bring out the voters there is danger that Democrats may think there is no reason why they should go to the polls on November 3. There are many reasons, however, why they should cast their ballots, some of which Mr. Hall, the chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, points out, in an appeal which we publish today. The appeal is a strong one and should have the attention of every Democrat. The main reason why it is needed is that the Populists, the Republicans and Independents are scheming to prevent Mr. Bryan from getting a majority, thus throwing the election of electors into the Legislature where, if occasion should arise, efforts might be made to prevent the electoral votes of Georgia being counted. We do not believe that the election will be so close that the electoral votes of Georgia will be needed to determine it, but it is impossible to forecast what will happen. It is better to be on the safe side. The safe side is the side on which there is a big majority for the Democratic national ticket.—Savannah News.

HUGHESITS FRIGHTENED.

Their Figures Indicate Chanler's Election by Seventeen Thousand.

(New York World.)

Gov. Hughes has changed his plans for winding up the campaign. Instead of putting the finishing touches on up the State he will return to New York city and make a final appeal on Monday night. The reason for it is found in the figures which the Republican National Committee has collected from every county in the State.

These figures have been sent in by Republican County leaders and have been verified by the investigators of the committee. They show that Mr. Taft will carry the State by at least 64,000, but that Gov. Hughes will be defeated by approximately 17,000 votes.

The Republican leaders do not admit the correctness of the figures, as far as Gov. Hughes is concerned, but privately they say the returns from all sources show them to be as stated.

The five boroughs of Greater New York are conceded to both Mr. Bryan and Mr. Chanler. Manhattan is put down at 84,000 for Chanler, the Bronx, 17,000; Brooklyn, 24,000; Queens, 9,200 and Richmond, 3,200—or 141,000 in all. Bryan will run behind Chanler by about 24,000, according to the figures.

The compilers of the figures explain that the totals are for "Gov. Hughes to shoot at." They express no doubt of his ability to overcome the apparent 17,000 lead which they figure Mr. Chanler shows at present.

The Democratic leaders will "go to the post" without giving any figures, beyond those collected by city and county chairman. National Chairman Mack last night expressed no doubt of Mr. Bryan's election. "The outlook is getting better every day," he said, "and our fear about New York is disappearing. We will carry the State for both Mr. Chanler and Mr. Bryan. Mr. Bryan may run a few hundred votes behind Mr. Chanler, on account of local conditions, but he will carry the State by a safe margin."

State Chairman Conners will go to Buffalo this morning and will not return until after he votes on Tuesday. He regards the battle as "already won."

"Bryan is going to be elected sure," he said last night, "and he will carry some counties in this State that are regarded as safely Republican. Chanler is as good as elected. Erie County will be carried by both by handsome majorities. I expect this city to give a record-breaking majority."

He says in his statement: I cannot be too loud in my praise of the great good done for me. My kidneys and back had given me so much trouble, I was able to work only one-half my time. I heard one of Mr. Andes' talks on kidney trouble and he described it better than I could tell it myself. Such heavy dull feeling in the small of my back, and was hardly able to turn myself in bed, would get up tired and had no energy. I used two bottles of The Andes' Great Prescription and I can do as much work as any man without my back giving me any trouble. If you have a weak back

Friends of Mrs. Donald MacRae and family are glad to learn that they have returned from Linville where they have been spending the Summer.

The many friends of Miss Janie Strange will be glad to learn that she has returned to her home after a very pleasant visit to friends in Fayettesville.

Friends of Mr. Raymond Humphreys were glad to welcome him to the city for a few days during the past week. Mr. Humphreys has returned, however, to Ferguson, S. C., where he is engaged in engineering.

Miss Marion Heilig, of Salisbury, N. C., arrived in the city on Saturday, and is the guest of her aunt, Miss Matilda Eilers. Miss Heilig has many friends in this city who will be glad to welcome her.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Boon left yesterday afternoon for their home, Lynchburg, Va., after a very pleasant week's visit among their relatives and many friends. Mr. Boon holds a very responsible position with the Williams & McKeithan Lumber Company.

Mr. Platt W. Davis left on Thursday last for Charleston, S. C., where he goes to take a position with the Peruvian Guano Company. The best wishes of his many friends in this city follow him to his new home. Mr. Davis will be greatly missed by his many friends here.

It will be learned with pleasure that Mrs. Robert Strange and daughter, Miss Helen Strange, have returned to their home, after spending the Summer and Fall in Virginia. Bishop Strange has also arrived from a visit to another parish in this Diocese, and will hold services in St. James Church today.

The many friends in this city of Miss Lucy Young, of Washington, D. C., who was a popular visitor in this city, several years ago, as the guest of Mrs. E. L. Holloway will be interested to learn of her approaching marriage to Mr. Walter Reynolds Powell, the marriage to take place on Thursday the twelfth of November. Handsome invitations have been received by friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A .Hawes, of Atkinson, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Jennie, to Dr. J. T. Hoggard. The wedding will take place the twenty-third of December in St. Thomas' Episcopal Church at Atkinson. The bride and groom elect are quite popular and their marriage is looked forward to among their friends with unusual interest and pleasure.

It has been learned with great pleasure by their many friends in this city that Mr. Robert N. Nash and family have returned to Wilmington from Atlanta, and that they will make this their home in the future. Mr. Nash went to Atlanta a short while ago to take a position with the Southern Railroad, but being offered a much better position with the A. C. L. in this city, they have returned, and will be at home to their many friends at their home on Second and Nun streets.

It will be learned with regret by the friends of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Cummings and family, of Brookline, Mass., that they were unexpectedly called away during the past week, and that they left on Thursday last. They came here a few weeks ago, expecting to spend the Winter in Wilmington, and during their short stay made many friends who will regret to learn of their departure. Mr. and Mrs. Cummings were greatly pleased with Wilmington, and it is sincerely hoped that they will return 'ere long.

The announcement during the past week of the engagement of Miss Elizabeth Strater Wiley, of Louisville, Ky., and Mr. Ceburn Dudd Harris, of Raleigh, will be of much interest. Mr. Harris has many friends throughout the State, and is well known in Wilmington, having often visited here and on Wrightsville Beach. Mr. Harris is assistant State chemist in charge of the Pure Food Department of the State Department of Agriculture. Miss Wiley is one of Kentucky's most popular young ladies, and has recently been a visitor in Raleigh, where she made many friends in the "Tar Heel State."

Many Wilmington friends will be interested in the following from the Raleigh News and Observer of one day the past week: "Imposing ceremonies attended the presentation of the oil portrait of Judge Archibald D. Murphey to the Supreme Court yesterday morning. The court room was filled, many ladies being present. The presentation address was delivered by Hon. John W. Graham, of Hillsboro, and the portrait was accepted in behalf of the Supreme Court by Chief Justice Walter Clark. The portrait was the gift of Judge Murphey's great-grandson, Judge Archibald Murphey Aiken, of Danville, Va., and Mr. B. G. North, of Wilmington who married Judge Murphey's grand-daughter. The portrait was painted by Mr. Jacques Busbee, of this city."

Little Miss Marion Summerell celebrated her seventh birthday last Wednesday by giving a little party. Although the weather was very inclement about fifteen of her little friends came around. The house was beautifully decorated, the color scheme was pink and white. All sorts of games were played and then there was a fish pond and each little child got a souvenir. Dainty refreshments were served and the little ones received a favor in the form of mapping mottoes, each containing different colored caps. Little Miss Marion received lots of pretty presents from her friends. Little Miss May Kingsbury and Miss Sallie Kingsbury delighted the audience by reciting some very pretty selections and Lillian Carpenter and Marion Summerell sang "School Days" and "See-Saw."

The wedding of Miss Frances Chadbourn and Dr. Jasper W. Stanly, which took place on Wednesday last at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Chadbourn, was one of the prettiest weddings which has been solemnized in this city for many years. The attractive Chadbourn home was elaboratedly decorated for the occasion, while Hollowbush's orchestra rendered sweet music with pleasing effect. The bride's only attendant was her niece, little Miss Blanche Chadbourn Bolles, and the groom's only attendants were Mr. Swift M. Boatwright, as best man, and Graham Kenan, Esq., as groomsman. Immediately following the ceremony was a brief reception, after which the young couple repaired to the Union Depot, where they boarded the North bound train for a wedding tour of some weeks in Northern cities. The out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Lucy Stanly, of Whiteville, mother of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Clark and Mr. Arthur Chadbourn, of Chadbourn, N. C.

A Galesburg, Illinois, paper of recent date has the following which will be read with interest by many friends in this city: "Mr. G. E. Megow, formerly a linotype operator on the Evening Mail, and a popular member of Typographical Union No. 288, surprised his friends the first of the week by appearing in our midst with a charming lady whom he introduced as his bride. The lady was Miss Margaret Newkirk, of Wilmington, N. C., where Mr. Megow has been employed since leaving here, having a machine on the Morning Star, where Mr. Clarence Mattingly, another of the "old boys" of 288 is employed as foreman of the composing room. Friends of the boys are pleased to learn that both are "making good" in the sunny South. Mr. Megow and Miss Newkirk were married September 30th, and have been making quite an extended wedding tour, visiting the east, north and middle west. They left for their future home at Wilmington, N. C., Monday by way of St. Louis, and will visit other points of interest in the South. Megow's old friends here all unite in congratulations and best wishes."

In its report of the recent session of the Wilmington Convocation at Fayetteville, the Observer of that city Friday evening says: "Notwithstanding the untowardness of the elements there was a goodly number of the faithful present at the gathering of the local branch of the Woman's Auxiliary—the great Woman's Missionary Organization of the Episcopal Church in America—on Wednesday afternoon to meet Mrs. William Calder, of Wilmington, the second vice-president of the Woman's Parochial and Missionary Society of the Diocese of East Carolina. This Society is one of recent organization, and is most happy in its choice of the one who presented its object and urged its upbuilding. Simply, clearly, but with fine and attractive enthusiasm Mrs. Calder stressed the importance of co-ordinating all the work of the women with an eye to its wider reach. Among other immediate enterprises which the Bishop desires to forward, she told interestingly of settling a most consecrated priest at Manteo to minister to those of the coast-wise service; and, in large measure through the children, erecting a cross on Roanoke Island in commemoration of Virginia Dare, the first English child baptized into the Church in America."

—Captain Haywood Clark and party of friends returned from a hunting trip up in Pender county yesterday. Captain Clark had the good fortune to kill a fine deer and the party brought home a long string of duck.

—Yesterday's Raleigh New and Observer: "Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. McMillan, of Wilmington, returned home yesterday after a visit to relatives in Raleigh. Mr. McMillan is stationer of the Atlantic Coast Line Railway."

—Deputy Sheriff W. Harvey Cox and son, Roy Cox, of this city, with Mr. I. J. Cox, of Durham, returned home yesterday from a hunting trip of a few days in Onslow county. They reported a fine trip and splendid luck. Mr. I. J. Cox left last night for his home.

FOOTBALL THIS WEEK.

Wilmington Team Will Play Aggregation from A. & M. Saturday.

The decisive victory won by the Wilmington High School in the football contest with the Goldsboro High School squad yesterday, enthused much interest in local circles, and the games this week between the local teams followed by a contest next Saturday between the Wilmington Football Team and the second team of the A. & M. College, of Raleigh, will undoubtedly attract much interest and good crowds. The Wilmington aggregation is going through regular routine of practice preparatory for the contest and on next Tuesday will play a practice game with the Wilmington High School.

Tomorrow afternoon at League Park the Cape Fear Academy and the Wilmington High School will play the game postponed from last week on account of inclement weather. The gate receipts will be donated to the Children's Playground Association.

Violated the Game Law.

Charley Mitchell, colored, a butler at the Cape Fear Club, on a warrant issued on the affidavit of Mr. G. C. King was tried in Justice Bornemann's court yesterday, charged with violating the game law, by way of killing four partridges. He was required to pay a fine of $5 and the costs.

They Take the Kinks Out.

"I have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for many years, with increasing satisfaction. They take the kinks out of stomach, liver and bowels, without fuss or friction," says N. H. Brown, of Pittsfield, Vt. Guaranteed satisfactory at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. 25c.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Rt. Rev. Robert Strange will hold the services at St. James church today.

—Elder J. T. Coats will preach Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Primitive Baptist Church, on Castle street. The public is cordially invited to hear him.

—The schooner John H. May, Capt. Stille, cleared yesterday with cargo of 330,000 feet of lumber from the Hammer Lumber Company; vessel by C. D. Maffitt.

—J. P. Springle, colored, was arrested yesterday afternoon at Front and Princess streets, on the charge of vagrancy by Officer Leon George. He was placed in the guard house to await trial in the police court tomorrow.

—Rev. K. D. Holmes, of Fifth Street M. E. Church, will speak to the mixed meeting at the Boys' Brigade armory at 5 o'clock this afternoon and the music will be by the choir of that church. All are cordially invited.

—The Fire Commission composed of the Mayor, Chief of the Fire Department and Chief of Police, yesterday afternoon made their annual inspection of the public school buildings finding all well equipped with safe guards.

—Tom and Frank Brown, brothers, on the charge of an affray, were arrested yesterday afternoon at Fourth and Nixon streets. The last named was recognized for his appearance and his brother was placed in the guard house to await a hearing of the case.

—At the session of the Mayor's court yesterday Gertie Filyaw, colored, on a charge of disorderly conduct, was given 30 days and James Cobin, colored, for fast driving of an automobile around corner of Second and Market streets, was discharged on payment of cost.

—Officers and members of Cape Fear Council No. 374, United Commercial Travelers, will participate in the civic parade, the feature of the Elksfest next Tuesday. Members are requested to meet at the council hall Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

—Patrons of the Independent Ice Company will receive only one delivery of ice next Tuesday, as the teams of the company will be used in the Elks' Civic Parade. The only delivery will be before 10 A. M. in the morning.

—Cotton receipts at the local port yesterday were the largest of the week, 4,665 bales. Of this number 1, 165 bales were brought to Wilmington by the Clyde Line steamer Navahoe from Georgetown, S. C., and 3,014 were received over the W., C. & A. branch of the Coast Line.

—In Justice Bornemann's court yesterday Emanuel Moseley on the charge of [illegible] committing a nuisance, was released the prosecuting witness withdrawing the warrant. The defendant contended that he had permission to leave a dead mule in East Wilmington, prior to Mr. Blake's forbidding him to do so.

—Campbell Encampment I. O. O. F., will confer the Golden Link degree on several candidates tomorrow night. The encampment is growing rapidly and new applications are being presented at each meeting. The camp expects to have a camp of 25 members for the Patriarchial degree, the first meeting night in December.

—Contributions to the Catherine Kennedy Home for October: Friend, coffee; Mrs. Harlow, tea; Mr. Pickett, fish roe; Miss Fannie Watters, Woman's Exchange, bread; Mrs. Wilder, potatoes, beans; Mrs. Mollie Pickett, fish-roe, bananas; Mrs. H. G. Smallbones; Mrs. R. A. Montgomery, fruit; Mr. J. Hicks Bunting, drugs; Mr. R. R. Bellamy, drugs; Mr. J. A. Springer, ice. Monthly meeting will be held at the Home Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

—The deeds filed for record yesterday were as follows: The American Suburban Corporation to W. S. McDiarmid, four lots in Carolina Place, block 31, on north side of Perry Avenue, 66 feet from its intersection with 18th street; Mary A. Penny to J. W. Collins and wife, for $100 and other considerations, property on south side of Brunswick, 89 feet east of Sixth street, being a part of lots Nos. 1 and 2 in block 266, according to the plan of the city.

—Postmaster Wallace, of the Wilmington office, yesterday received by telegraph a ruling from the Postoffice Department at Washington to which a copy was forwarded, to the effect that the recent supplement sent out from Democratic State headquarters to the daily and weekly newspapers of the State was mailable. The ruling came a "day after the feast" as the papers had already used them before the objection was raised and publishers will not be taxed the extra postage.

Leaves For Chattanooga.

Mr. B. R. Hoshall, for the past two years office manager for the Hyman Supply Company, has severed his connection with that company and is leaving with his family for Chattanooga, Tenn., where Mr. Hoshall will be associated with the James Supply Company. They have made a great many friends in Wilmington who will regret exceedingly to learn of their departure. Mr. Hoshall is one of the most capable hardware and mill supply men in the State and will be a valuable acquisition for the Tennessee house with which he will go.

Large Home Grown Lemon.

Mrs. J. H. Daniel, of No. 207 Church street, is the possessor of a lemon of unusual size, which was only recently picked from a lemon tree at her home. It has the appearance of one grown in the tropics, and is considerably larger than the average, being 13 3-4 inches in circumference. It is a unique curiosity.

Presidential electors, a Governor, Congressmen and a Railroad Commissioner are to be chosen in Tennessee in Tuesday's election. For both National and State tickets, the Democratic leaders are claiming the usual majorities. The Republican State committee claims to have hopes for the victory of their candidate for Governor. The campaign has been marked by apathy.

dividends declared by the Board of Directors of the power company amount in the aggregate to 10 per cent. of the preferred stock of the power company; and only then and until said dividend amounting to 10 per cent. in the aggregate on the preferred stock of said power company shall have been earned and paid, were the common stockholders permitted to receive and demand from said voting trust a transfer back to them of the common stock which they had assigned and transferred to the voting committee. It was also provided in the agreement that the decision of the voting committee as to the first of the completion and operation of the power plant or as to the payment of the said dividend of 10 per cent. on the preferred stock or any other question arising in connection with the said stock deposit agreement, should be conclusive and binding on all parties in interest including the holders of the common stock which had been transferred and assigned to the said voting committee. It was also provided by the agreement that members of the voting committee should be liable only for his individual mistakes and gross negligence. It was also provided by the agreement that the committee should issue to subscribers of common stock of the power company receipts signed on its behalf by the Knickerbocker Trust Co., certifying to the several owners of the common stock that they and each of them had deposited with the said committee or the trust company so many shares of the common stock, which receipts should only be transferred on the books of the voting committee by the surrender of said receipts duly endorsed and new receipts of the said voting committee issued in place of same, a copy of the stock agreement being attached to the complaint. It is further alleged that afterwards and prior to the commencement of this action that H. A. Pressey resigned as a member of the committee and no one was ever appointed to take his place; that the plaintiff is owner of 10 shares of the common stock of the power company purchased in good faith and for which full value for same was paid since the execution of the stock deposit agreement; that the plaintiff prior to the action made demand upon C. N. Mason, president of the company; S. N. Bond, vice president, and D. H. Thomas, secretary and treasurer of the power company, for the issuance of 10 shares of common stock in lieu and place of deposit certificate; that all these parties refused and declined to accede to the demand of the plaintiff; that plaintiff is advised and believes that under the laws of North Carolina the stock deposit agreement is illegal and void; that the Knickerbocker Trust Co., is the trustee under the deed of trust made by the power company to secure the issue of the first mortgage bonds of the power company; that in the late financial panic, as the financial agent of the power company, it was to furnish the money for the completion of the plant, but got into financial straits and was unable to carry out its contract; that the plaintiff is informed and believes that the original stock of the power company has been transferred and assigned to the Knickerbocker company and is held by it as the agent of the voting committee; that the plaintiff is informed and believes that Warner and Mitchell, now of the committee, have control and full voting power of a large majority of the stock of the power company, over 14,000 out of 15,000 shares, and are contemplating and endeavoring to use their power in voting same to wreck and ruin the interests of the holders of the common stock in that they are attempting and intending to put through and carry out what they call a plan of reorganization by which they propose to wipe out and destroy the present common stock and to create a new issue of common stock of twice the amount of the present issue and only give to the present holders of the common stock 10 per cent. of their holdings, that is one share for ten, distributing the balance of the new contemplated issue of said stock without any monied value for the same, intending to give the balance of the stock as a bonus to other parties than the present common stockholders; that all of the present officers of the company were elected to their respective offices by the voting committee; that such election is illegal and invalid, wherefore judgment is prayed that the Stock Deposit Agreement be declared illegal and void; that Mitchell and Warner be enjoined and restrained from using or exercising any power or control over the common stock of the power company under the agreement or from voting same in any meeting whatsoever; that the election of the present officers be declared void and the court order a meeting of the holders of the common stock to be duly held for the election of other officers; that the defendant be enjoined to transfer and assign to plaintiff 10 shares of the common stock upon his surrender and delivery of the deposit receipts. The plaintiff enters into the usual bond of $500 for the maintenance of the suit.

"Who Are Genuine Christians?"

The subject of Pastor Fred D. Hale this morning at the First Baptist Church will be: "Who Are Genuine Christians?" The night subject will be "The Blackest Sin in the World?" The Lord's supper will be celebrated at the close of the morning service and the ordinance of baptism will be administered at the close of the night service. Dr. Hale has just returned from Gadsen, Ala., where he has been holding a revival meeting with the First Baptist Church of that place.

The fight in the Ninth Virginia district between C. Bascom Slemp, Republican incumbent, and J. Floyd Byars, attracts most interest in the State. In the first district the candidacy of George Nelms Wise, Republican, against William A. Jones, Democratic incumbent, is not regarded seriously.

The Theatre

The popular vaudeville house, the Crystal Palace, on North Second street, will be abreast of the gay and glittering Elksfest this week, making a big and festive offering. The bill will also be one of novelty, as the acts were selected with especial care for variety and uniqueness. The new bill will be headed by the Great Kalem, widely known as the "man of mystery" and who will appear in a startling act of both Hindoo and modern magic; Wayne, the well known black-face comedian; Miss Blanche Aldrich, the noted mimic and comedy artist; Minor and Vincent, comedy sketch artists, presenting songs and dances also; and other vaudeville artists. The opening performance of the new bill will be given tomorrow afternoon, and, no doubt, from then on the attractive Crystal Palace will prove very popular with visitors.

At the Popular Bijou.

The Bijou was unable last night to accommodate the large crowds which gathered to see the unusually high-class offering of moving pictures that is being made there just at present. Many had to wait from one audience to another and all were delighted with the show. For Monday the film will be an "Irish Fairy Story," the Leprechawn, in which Lord Craven, a heartless landlord; pretty Nora, an Irish lass, and her lover Barney, are the characters around which a pretty story is unfolded. The admission is never over five cents and the show is never out and never over.

Fur Opening at Fore's.

Special attention is called to the advertisement of C. H. Fore & Co., which may be found in another column, announcing a special fur sale on Monday. The stock is large and select and the ladies of the city should read the announcement.

Overfatness Condemned.

Fat, or even fattish, women readers who want to be in the mode this year must understand that the demand is for lines, not curves, and govern themselves accordingly.

That means OFF with the fat. It has become a duty. Many are trying exercise or dieting; but it is certain they will find these methods too slow and unreliable. The cheapest and safest way to get in form for the directoire mode is by means of Marmola Prescription Tablets. Any druggist (or the Marmola Company, Detroit, Mich.) will give you a large-sized case of these elegant little fat reducers, containing a good, generous supply, for seventy-five cents, and even this quantity should be enough to make a decided impression on your excess fat. Many have lost as much as a pound a day.

These Marmola Prescription Tablets may be used with impunity anl likewise perfect confidence, for, being made strictly in accordance with the famous Marmola Prescription, they are, of course, quite harmless. They are rather beneficial than otherwise, in fact, never disturbing the stomach or causing a wrinkling of the flesh.

WHY

do people who use Gowan's Preparation use it again and tell their neighbors? Because it is a great remedy and cures Croup, Colds and Pneumonia. External. 25c; 50c; $1.00. All druggists. Buy to-day.

rare, old carolina wine.

Suppernong Wine is the rarest product of the vineyard. Made from a grape peculiar to this section, its delightfully exquisite flavor, its rich bouquet and its fragrant aroma, have given it a popularity over the entire country.

Scuppernong is the wine of the connoiseur, but it is light in alcohol and posseses wonderful medicinal poperties.

Nothing will appeal to your afternoon visitors like Bear's Scuppernong Wine, daintily served with cake or wafers.

POLITICS IN THE SOUTH

Ante-Election Situation in These States—Some Interest in Louisiana Because of the Republican Efforts.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New Orleans, Oct. 31.—With Republican nominees in four out of seven Congressional districts the close of the National compaign finds more than an ordinary amount of interest displayed in the election of next Tuesday. Democratic leaders are urging the members of their party in the face of Republican opposition to get out and poll a large vote.

Jacksonville, Fla. Oct. 31.—The political campaign in Florida now closing has been unusually tame and uneventful, the only ripple being caused by the contest in the Third Congressional district which has now been settled by a Supreme Court decision and the withdrawal of J. Walter Kehoe, one of the candidates. It is estimated that the Democratic plurality in the State will be at least 20,000.

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 31.—The National campaign in South Carolina has attracked more attention than in former years, The chief work has been done by the State newspaper which collected more than $8,000 from 100,000 persons for the campaign fund. This State will go Democratic by at least 60,000 majority and all of the Democratic Congressmen will be re-elected.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 31.—The campaign in Alabama will come to a close tonight. All reports indicate that the Democratic National ticket will receive the usual majority and that the nine Congressional members will be re-elected.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 31.—A vote in excess of 150,000 is generally predicted for Georgia this election. The Democratic share of this vote normally about two-thirds, indicates no prospect of important change. One of the features has been the campaign of the people's party, which is expected to bring out votes.

Dallas, Texas, Oct. 31.—Besides Presidential electors a full State, county and Congressional ticket will be voted for on Tuesday. The Democrats have made practically no campaign and the Republicans have been unusually active. Democratic leaders, however, announce that their tickets will win by the usual majorities. The only claim made by the Republican managers is that the fourth congressional district will be close and a determined effort will be made to defeat Gain Democrat.

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 31.—In no Congressional district in Arkansas is the contest regarded close. A full Democratic delegation is conceded for President. Arkansas will probably give the largest Democratic majority in its history, as the Republicans have shown little interest in Tuesday's election. The campaign closed tonight with Democratic rallies in several cities.

Jackson, Miss., Oct. 31.—Mississippi will next Tuesday vote for Presidential electors and Representatives in the lower House of Congress .The campaign which closed tonight has been without interest. Democratic leaders claim the usual large majority for the National ticket and a full delegation to Congress. The Republicans make no claims.

FATAL FOOTBALL GAME

V. M. I. Cadet Dies From Wounds Received in a Football Game.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Lexington, Va., Oct 31.—Cadet G. Cook Ferebee, a son of G. B. Ferebee, of Norfolk, Va., died today from concussion of the brain due to an injury received in a game of football between Virginia Military Institute and Roanoke College, played here this afternoon on the former parade grounds. The injury resulted from being tackled while running with the ball as left half back. The game was not finished.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

The Annual Proclamation Issued by the President Yesterday.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Oct. 31.—The President today issued the annual Thanksgiving Proclamation in which he pointed out the steady growth of the Nation in strength, worldly power, wealth and population and that our average of individual comfort and well-being is higher than that of any other country in the world. For this, he declared, Americans owe it to the Almighty to show equal progress in moral and spiritual things.

EXTERNAL REMEDY FOR ECZEMA

Why Salves Fail While a Simple Liquid Has Accomplished Thousands of Cures.

It is now thoroughly established among the best medical authorities that eczema is purely a skin disease, due to a germ and cure is only through the skin. It is not a blood disease at all; in fact, thousands of people suffer with skin disease and are perfectly healthy otherwise, and therefore prove they have no diseased blood.

Smeary salves cannot reach the germs because they do not penetrate the skin. The only way to reach the germs is by means of a penetrating liquid.

Such a liquid can be obtained by simply mixing ordinary oil of wintergreen with thymol, glycerine and other healing agents. This compound known as D. D. D. Prescription stops the itch instantly—and the cures all appear to be permanent. In fact, it took thousands of cures, case after case, before the best scientific authorities were convinced of the absolute merit of this remedy. The effect of D. D. D. Prescription in numbing the itching eczema germs is seen within one minute after the first application. We especially recommend D. D. D. Soap in connection with this treatment.

MIDGET RUSSIAN PRINCE IS HERE

Offers Title For Rich American Wife--An Attraction At the Elksfest.

The smallest man in the world now exhibiting at the Fair is looking for a wife. Prince Nicholi, twenty-two inches and a half high, has declared his intention of becoming a benedict providing he finds a young woman with a suitable income who will exchange her gold for the title he would be able to bestow upon her.

Prince Nicholi, unlike most midgets, is of an extremely cheerful disposition, and let it be whispered, an arrogant flirt. He dresses in the latest fashion, his suits being made by a well known London tailor. He sports ties that would put to shame the neckwear worn by a winning jockey. He smokes the strongest cigars and nothing would keep him from the prize fight last night. He might be referred to as a "sport."

The diminutive prince tells his story best in his own way.

"My life has not always been a happy one," he declared. "Before I was born my father was unjustly accused of some political crime and he was exiled to Siberia. My mother followed him. You know political prisoners receiving life sentences in Siberia are allowed to take their families with them. I was born there. My father and mother were of normal size. I spent twenty-five years in Siberia and we suffered all the hardships that can be suffered in a cold northern country, for political prisoners are treated none too kindly in Russia.

Gets Audience With Czar.

Of course there was a record of my birth, and as the laws of Russia compel all males over the age of twenty-one to report for military duty, they summoned my father to find why I had not complied with the ruling. I went with him. When they saw me they thought my father was trying some way to evade military duty for me. Finally they became convinced that I was a man in years if not in size and reported the matter to the higher authorities.

"They in return, soon brought the matter before the Czar. The Czar Nicholas sent for me, something my father and mother and myself had dreamed of. I hastily got together what documents I could which proved my father's innocence and when I had an audience with his imperial Majesty I showed them to him. The Little Father' became convinced of the truth of my assertions and pardoned my father.

"My parents returned to their home in the City of Kief. They were very old beyond their years and, of course, their fortune was depleted. I decided to come to America as other titled men have done and seek a rich wife.

There is nothing dishonorable about it. Other men have done the same as there are many girls here who care more for a title and social position that accompanies it than they do for their dollars. I care more for dollars than I do for the title.

Will Prove Lineage.

"What difference does my stature make? Did Anna Gould love the Count De Castellane when she married him? Why did Alice Thaw marry the Earl of Yarmouth? Has the Duchess of Marlborough been happy in her married life? They all pretended to be in love. I do not. I make it a plain business proposition. You want my title; I want your money. I will deport myself so as tocause you no unhappiness; you will deport yourself so as to cast no reflections upon our house. You see the matter is very simple."

"But, Prince," I said, "don't you think you are very mercenary?"

"No, indeed, for myself, I don't care about money, but I want my people to live in the position they were accustomed to before they were so unjustly punished. I want to see the old people enjoy every luxury in the land to make-up for the privations they were obliged to endure for that twenty-six years of exile."

'Do you think an American girl would consent to your terms? Do you think an American girl would be content to enter into a loveless marriage?" I asked.

"So I have been told by those who know," replied the prince. "The American girl is a wonderful creature. She is beautiful, talented and graceful. I admire her sincerely. She is more superb than my countrywomen, but after money is theirs they want a higher social position than they can gain in the United States. As the wives of titled men the doors of society are open to them in Europe."

"But your title, Prince; there are so many who come to this country that have not the family they claim." I made bold to ask him.

He looked at me scornfully.

"Madame," he replied, "I am asking no one to take my word for my position. When the proper time comes and I meet the woman that will be my wife, I will show the necessary documents that will convince her of my noble lineage."

The prince is only thirty-two years of age, and though not handsome has prepossessing manners.

The midget speaks three languages —Russian, German and English—and is now studying Spanish.

A Sure-enough Knocker.

J. C. Goodwin, of Reidsville, N. C., says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve is a sure-enough knocker for ulcers. A bad one came on my leg last summer, but that wonderful salve knocked it out in a few rounds. Not even a scar remained." Guaranteed for piles, sores, burns, etc. 25c at R. R. Bellamy's drug store.

WARM WIRELETS.

The torpedo flotilla of six vessels, now at Annapolis, has been ordered to Charleston, S. C., for repairs, preparatory to leaving there December 5th for Pensacola. This practically is the beginning of the Charleston yard as a repair station.

The campaign in Virginia has practically closed and after last night there will be no more spellbinding. That State is expected to poll its usual Democratic majority, although in Richmond there has been evinced some little inclination on the part of "Old Timers" to go over.

There is a limit to the weight a Georgia mule should be made to haul and this limit was yesterday fixed by Judge Broyles in police court at 2,500 pounds. Judge Broyles fined C. R. Walker $5.75 because Walker's mule was caught by an enterprising policeman in the act of houling a load of 4,032 pounds.

Word has reached Lexington, Ky., of a clash on Standing Rock Creek in Wolfe county, between the Hall and Ashley feud factions in which two of the Hall boys were shot, one fatally the other seriously. One of the Ashleys was fatally stabbed. Two of the combatants were arrested. The Halls were armed with knives and the Ashleys with pistols.

Hearst, in Carnegie Hall, New York, last night read further letters designed to show attempts of the Standard Oil Co., to shape public opinion. One enclosed a certificate of deposit to R. H. Edmonds for $3,000 for one year's subscription to the Baltimore Manufacturer's Record. Another expressed willingness to continue $5,000 subscription to Thomas P. Grasty's Southern Farm Magazine; still another from Sibley to Archbold suggested the need of an efficient literary bureau and suggesting the Associated Press as such.

A Paying Investment.

Mr. John White, of 38 Highland Ave., Houlton, Maine, says: "Have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50c bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone, the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result has followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." Sold under guarantee at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Lexington Dispatch: "You fellows who began voting the Republican ticket in 1896 because you said the Republicans would give you prosperity—hadn't you better turn around now, to be consistent, if you were honest?"

—Newton Enterprise: Mr. Smithdeal has just completed the census of the school population in Newton, and reports that there are 686 persons within the school age. Of this number 342 are males and 344 females. He found some twenty-five of this number married.

Salisbury Post: W. A. Brown, who has been in the fish and oyster business in Salisbury for a dozen years, says the panic has hit the oyster trade hard. Formerly not more than two representatives of the oyster packers visited Salisbury, while this year twelve have been on the ground from time to time soliciting business.

—Selma News: The best friend the old Confederate soldier has is the Democratic party. It has given him one-sixth of its income ,and would give more if it could. Yet the Republican state platform "denounces the Democratic party for its repeated failure to keep its promise to the old Confederate soldier." What has the Republican party ever done for him?

—Greensboro Record: Many offers to bet money on the result of the election are daily heard on the streets, and many people who are willing to bet on the election are not aware of the fact that the offense of betting on the election, according to the law of North Carolina, is as great as that of buying or attempting to buy or selling votes.

—King's Mountain Herald: Mr. J. W. Allen, editor of J. A. Smith's Bessemer City Messenger, has resigned and left Bessemer City unawares. It is understood that he left a note of explanation addressed to Mr. Smith, the Republican candidate for Congress, stating that he was going to vote for Webb for Congress. The running of The Messenger was not done to Mr. Allen's notion.

—Reading, P., Oct. 30.—Richard Mckwaine, a negro, was hanged at York today for the murder of E. Warren Peterson, also a negro, a year ago. Both men were employed in the construction gang of the Hanover and York trolley line. They quarreled over money matters and Mckwaine killed Peterson and fled to his home at Charlotte, N. C., where he was apprehended.

—Stanley Enterprise: $100,000 Sanatorium for Albermarle. This may be one of the near possibilities. Messrs. W. C. Irwin, F. C. Goodman, and Geo. B. Sincox and daughter, of Salem, Ill., have been looking over the field here with a view of investing something like a hundred thousand dollars to establish a sanatorium for the treatment of tuberculosis, general diseases and surgery cases.

—Charity and Children: There are boys at the Orphanage who can handle a team of mules with as much skill as anybody; others know how to fire and run a steam engine; others still can make an honest shoe from heel to toe; a few of them can set type to beat the band, while all of them, who have left the nursery, know the necessity of doing honest work. The Orphanage is no place for an idler or a dude.

—Wilson Times: The statement in the News and Observer this morning that the American Tobacco Company has withdrawn its buyers from the Wilson market is absolutely without foundation and is strenuously denied by the representatives of the company. We heard the report yesterday and called up the various warehouses and enquired if the company was buying tobacco and we found the representatives on every warehouse floor.

—Lenoir New: Our countyman, Mr. Julius A. Dula, has packed and shipped a few barrels of his Dula Beauty apples to Greensboro, N. C., where they will be placed in cold storage, and in due time will be shipped to Spokane, Washington, and will be placed on exhibition at the fair in that city in December. Mr. Dula hopes to take the premium on apples. Mr. Dula's apples took first premium at the State Fair in Raleigh and we are proud of it. He is giving attention to his orchard and deserves success.

—Asheville, N. C., October 30—The first snow fall of the season came between midnight and dawn Thursday. Early risers that morning were given a genuine surprise when they stepped forth to find the ground covered with snow and the surrounding mountains and housetops whitecapped. At daybreak snow and sleet were falling in quantity, later the snow and sleet changed to rain and all day there has been a cold drizzle. There was evidence this morning that the snow fall last night was heavy and but for the fact that the ground was rainsoaked, several inches of the "beautiful" would have been visible.

—Mount Olive Tribune: Mount Olive and this section of Wayne will give the usual Democratic majority if all signs do not fail. In these closing days of the campaign every Democrat should do everything possible to swell the Democratic majority. The crowning effort here will be a speech in the Opera House tonight by our esteemed townsman, Mr. J. E. Kelly, one of the Democratic candidates for the Legislature from Wayne. Col. I. F. Dortch, of Goldsboro, is also expected to be present and speak ,and it is probable that a large crowd will be present to hear Messrs. Kelly and Dortch.

NEWS NOTES OF ROBESON

Lumberton Looking Forward to Election—Variety of Personal and General News—Attractions at Opera House.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C., Oct. 31.—Arrangements are being made by which the election returns will be delivered at the opera house Tuesday night. During the intervals between reports, speeches by Bryan and Taft will be heard from the graphophone furnished by Mr. C. M. Barker, manager of the Eagle Furniture Co.

Reports will be read as received by Mr. R. D. Caldwell. It is useless to say that a large crowd will be on hand to hear by what majority Mr. Bryan is elected. Everybody is invited, ladies as well as gentlemen. A small admission will be charged to defray expenses.

It is the general opinion that the performance given by the "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" company here Monday night was the worst that ever hit the town. There was one exception—the music was very fine.

Mrs. Ellen Redmond expects soon to move into her residence on Main street which is being vacated by Mr. A. H. Hinds.

To show how popular The Morning Star is with some people, there is a gentleman living two miles from town who drives in early every Sunday morning to get his paper, while another walks a mile to get his paper before breakfast Sunday morning.

At the opera house Monday night J. Early Hughes will present "Peacetown," a beautiful American comedy in four acts. Tickets on sale at McMillan's drug store Monday morning.

The ladies of the Methodist church gave an entertainment which was well attended at the graded school dormitory last night. The proceeds go to the new church fund.——Rev. J. M. McLean, of Rowland, will conduct services in the Presbyterian church here tomorrow.——It is reported that at an early day the congregation of the Gospel Tabernacle will erect a parsonage for the use of their pastor. Already a goodly sum has been subscribed for the purpose.

Mr. J. W. Morris, Seaboard cashier at this place, was married Wednesday at Marion, S. C., to Miss Minnie Ammons. Mr. and Mrs. Morris reached here Wednesday evening and for the present are boarding at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hinds.

A revival meeting will commence at the Gospel Tabernacle next Friday. Rev. F. Weiss, the pastor, will be assisted by Rev. L. Compton, of Asheville.

It is a pleasure to note the great improvement in the early morning electric light service since attention was called to the great inconvenience causd by the lights being cut off so soon.

The Jones Adams Vaudeville Show under canvas closes a week's engagement here tonight and in spite of the inclement weather have done a nice business. This is one of the best and cleanest shows that has ever visited Lumberton. The entire cast are performers of ability and Mr. Sam V. Hunter, the black-face comedian, captivated the audience at each performance. His work in his particular line is far superior to any comedian seen here. The singing and dancing of the Edinger sisters is superb. Our people will be delighted to see this attraction again on its return engagement next Spring.

The range exhibition which has been going on at the establishment of Messrs. Caldwell & Carlyle this week, has been visited by large numbers of people and several ranges have been sold.

Considerable excitement was caused in the vicinity of the opera house one night this wek by the loud report of a shot-gun. Two gentlemen while passing down the street, discovered a large owl chasing a bird around, and procuring a gun, discharged it at him, but instead of felling the owl, he flew off a short distance where he entertained the neighbors during the night by yelling "Who-Who."

Senator F. M. Simmons filled his appointment here today, addressing a large crowd of Robeson county people. As the time for the speaking approached it was seen that the Court House would be entirely too small and the tent of the Jones Adams Show was secured, and it was well filled. The speaker was introduced by Mr. R. C. Lawrence and music was furnished by the Adams Show Band. At the conclusion of the speaking a free performance was given by the show which was greatly enjoyed by the crowd. It was another great day for Democracy in Robeson.

Senator Simmons left here tonight for Wilmington where he will spend Sunday. From there he goes to Kinston where he will make his last speech of the campaign Monday night.

IS POWERLESS TO RESIST FOE

Uuable to Resist Ravages of Fatal Disease Germs Through Weakened Conditions.

WHAT IS GENERAL DEBILITY

Col. Dillirgham's Lecturer Shows the Cause of General Debility and the Dangers That Result From This Condition.

A highly appreciative audience greeted Col. Frank A. Dillingham's Plant Juice entertainers last night. An amusement programme of exceptional merit was presented by these inimitable comedians that contained several new features, every one of which was received with liberal applause by those assembled. Mr. Mills, Col. Dillingham's able lecturer, talked interestingly on the most widely prevalent of all afflictions, "General Debility" and graphically portrayed its dangers for the benefit of his hearers:

"If it were not for general debility," said Mr. Mills, "it would be a comparitively easy matter to stamp out some of the worst forms of disease. It is this same general debility that paves the way for fatal disease; it means a system weakened to such an extent that it is unable to offer any resistance to the invading hosts of disease germs, who enter, thrive, and accomplish their mission of destruction because the body has lost its natural power of resistance to disease through that form of ill health popularly known as general debility. This condition is invariably due to the disease of some important organ; the stomach, liver, kidneys, heart, or other organ, becomes diseased and fails to perform its duties. This condition is permitted to go on unchecked, and other organs become involved, the tendency of one of these organs to become deranged in sympathy with another is a marked characteristic, and the whole human machinery is soon out of gear, the system becomes generally debilitated and the man or woman in this condition is nothing more than a living, walking invitation to fatal disease to enter at will."

Mr. Mills pointed out the remarkable success of Dillingham's Plant Juice remedies in curing diseases of the Stomach, liver, kidneys and blood, the primary seat of trouble in such cases, and made plain the importance of giving prompt attention to the derangement of any one of these organs.

Additional evidence that these remedies will do all that is claimed for them is developing every day in the form of statements from persons who have been relieved of suffering through their use. This has resulted in a large demand for Plant Juice at the stores of R. R. Bellamy, The J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., and other Wilmington druggists, and also a rapidly increasing number of mail orders from persons in nearby towns.

WHO WAS IT MIXED 'EM.

Walter Henry Cornered on the Mixed School Question.

(Special to News and Observer.)

Colerain, N. C., Oct. 29.—Last week Walter R. Henry, Esq., at present Republican candidate for elector at large, spoke at Mar's Hill, near here. He came to our town, where he was born. While talking with a number of people on the street, he expressed great surprise that his old neighbors and friends should support a man for President who sent his children to mixed schools in Nebraska. Rev. M. P. Davis, a highly respected and well posted Baptist minister, was present, and engaging in the general conversation, asked "is not Nebraska a Republican State," when Henry replied. "It is and I hope it will always be so." "Then," said Mr. Davis, who mixed the whites and blacks in the schools?" At this clear cornering Henry flew into a passion and profanely replied to Mr. Davis.

This language was so profane and violent that one or two gentlemen at once slipped up and gave him to understand that an apology was in order, and that the sooner it was made the better for him. Mr. Henry then said he did not know Mr. Davis was a minister and apologized for his language. Our people will not tolerate any such as this. We have no Republicans of the Henry stamp in our town. The few that are here expressed indignation at the occurrence. It is reported that Mr Henry was blowing around about, reporting the postmaster for not defending and protecting him, as the matter occurred in front of the postoffice. The remark of the postmaster that he could report the true cause of the trouble seems to have ended the "appeal to Caesar."

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 31.—The cotton market opened steady at an advance of 1 to 7 points, near months being relatively firm on the cables while later positions reflected good weather and a local bearish condition report. They soon firmed up, however, and the general list ruled about 5 to 6 points net higher during the middle of the morning. Business was very active for a half holiday the speculative feature being the purchase of 12,000 bales of January, against a sale of 12,000 bales of March at an 8 point difference. Private cables attributed the English advance to covering by local shorts against calling by spinners. The market closed steady with prices net 2 to 8 points higher.

Receipts at the ports today 82,683 bales against 72,249 last week and 65,249 last year. For the week 425,000 bales against 447,682 last week and 366,777 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 18,962 bales against 7,976 last year and at Houston 15,548 bales against 10,250 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet; middling uplands 9.35; middling gulf 9.60; sales 100 bales.

Futures opened steady and closed steady.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 31.—The day's stock market was affected plainly enough by a movement on the part of speculative holders to get out of their holdings on the eve of the presidential election. News was not much attended to, although there was considerable discussion of John D. Rockefeller's announcement of his political attitude and of the reception accorded it. The extraordinary gains in net earnings for September reported yesterday by the Union Pacific and the Southern Pacific were supplemented by the reports to the inter-State commerce commission of other trans-continental railroads for that period, showing increases in gross earnings and heavy cuts in operating cost. It was considered that the strength of these returns would operate against the attempt credited to the railroads to bring about a general advance in freight rates after the election. The bank statement presented no great surprises.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, were $1,960,000. United States bonds are unchanged on call for the week. Total sales today, were 288,500 shares.

WEEKLY BANK STATEMENT.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 31.—The statement of clearing house banks for the week shows that the banks hold $33,589,125 more than the requirements of the 25 per cent. reserve rule. This is an increase of $709,125 in the proportionate cash reserve as compared with last week.

The statement follows: Loans $1,333,365,600, decrease $5,061,300; Deposits $1,411,416,300, decrease $6,600,100; Circulation $52,983,500, decrease $212,400; Legal tenders $81,280,800, increase $157,900; specie $305,162,400, decrease $1,127,800; reserve $386,443,200, decrease $969,900; reserve required $352,854,075, decrease $1,679,025; surplus $33,589,125, increase $709,125; ex-U. S. deposits $35,902,375, increase $710,325. The percentage of actual reserve of the clearing house banks at the close of business yesterday was 27.55.

The statement of State banks and trust companies of Greater New York not members of the clearing house shows that those institutions have aggregate deposits of $1,083,505,400; total cash on hand $102,889,400, and lotns amounting to $976,105,400.

FINANCIAL MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 31.—Money on call nominal. Time loans very dull and steady. Sixty days 2 1-2 to 3 per cent., and ninety days 3 to 3 1-4 per cent. Six months 3 1-2 per cent.

Prime mercantile paper 4 to 4 1-2 per cent. Sterling exchange weak with actual business in bankers bills at 4.8375 to 4.84 for sixty days and at 4.86 to 4.8610 for demand. Commercial bills 4.83 1-2 to 4.83 5-8. Bar silver 50 3-8. Mexican dollars 45.

WAS GREAT DAY FOR MR. BRYAN

Record Making Tour Through The Hoosier State With 24 Speeches to His Credit.

GREAT CROWDS HEAR HIM

At Richmond, Illinois, 802 Republicans Pledged Their Support to Mr. Bryan—Will Spend Monday in Kansas.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Chicago, Oct. 31.—This has been one of the greatest days I ever experienced in the campaign," remarked W. J. Bryan as he stepped from his special train late tonight at Englewood after a full day in Indiana.

Crowds of mamoth proportions and unlimited cheering were the tributes of the Hosier State to the Democratic candidate for President. He frequently left the train and was fairly mobbed by his enthusiastic admirers. The preparations for his reception at the various points where stops were made were lavish. Nor was Mr. Bryan alone in the ovations. Mrs. Bryan came in for her share and was deluged with flowers and even lunch baskets. She was continually on the platform shaking hands or holding receptions in the parlor of her car, the Olivette.

Practically winding up his campaign today Mr. Bryan entered into the spirit of the occasion with an earnestness and intensity which left no room for doubt that he meant what he said. He spoke with convincing force in his attacks on Messrs. Rockefeller, Carnegie, Harriman, President Roosevelt and Mr. Taft. He found new thought for argument in his speech last night at Buffalo, of Mr. Taft who is quoted as denying that Mr. Rockefeller was supporting him in the campaign. He felt that if Mr. Taft objected to the oil king, he should get out a writ of injunction against him as "Mr. Taft is acquainted with the injunction business."

At Anderson Mr. Bryan's denunciation of the Republican party aroused him to a point where he said: "They have been carrying on a masquerade ball, but the ball is over now. The masks have been removed and behold! Mr. Taft has been dancing with Coy Mr. Rockefeller and did not know it. Mr. Sherman has been waltzing with Winsome Carnegie and Mr. Roosevelt has led the grand march with that undesirable citizen, Mr. Harriman. What a cruel deception these trust magnates have practiced on the confiding Republican leaders."

Another favorite argument of the candidate today was in connection with the empty dinner pail slogan. "The Republicans deceived you eight years ago about the dinner pail," he said, "but now there is no full dinner pail, the working men are looking at the hole in the bottom and making faces at the Republican leaders."

Twenty-four speeches were delivered in Indiana. At Winchester Mr. Bryan issued a signed appeal to the people of the United States for their suffrage. An incident of the trip occurred at Richmond when Mr. Bryan was handed a list of 802 Republicans pledging their support to him. By the breaking down of the engine of Mr. Bryan's special at Macy, Ind., his arrival at Chicago was delayed. He will remain in Chicago until tomorrow afternoon when he will proceed to Kansas and on Monday speak in the Northwestern portion of the State, these engagements being concluded in time to permit of his return to Lincoln that night where he will be accorded a home coming demonstration.

PUT UP TO ROOSEVELT

Attention of President Called to Conduct of Republican Office Holders.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Parkersburg, W. Va., Oct. 31.—Geo. I. Neal, vice chairman of the Democratic State committee and active head of the Democratic campaign in this State, sent a telegram today to President Roosevelt complaining of the activity of certain federal office-holders in the campaign. The telegram follows:

"Federal office holders in this State are making your position of not permitting pernicious political activity by federal office holders the laughing stock of the State. I especially refer to Frank H. Tyree, marshal for the southern district; Charles D. Elliott, marchal for the northern district, and George M. Bowers, fish commissioner. Their pernicious political activity in this campaign is a common notoriety. We are ready with positive proof, at any time, of their guilty."

THE VOTE IN THIS STATE.

Democratic Majority of 50,000—Hard Fight by Republicans.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 31.—North Carolina will give a Democratic majority of from 45,000 to 50,000. The Republicans express a hope of carrying this State, but have no chance. They are making a hard fight for Congressmen in the Eighth and Tenth districts, but indications there are for Democratic success. There will be but a slight difference in the National and State vote.

A bill asking that a receiver be appointed for the Southern Savings Life and Accident Insurance Company, a Virginia corporation, was filed in the circuit court in Chicago yesterday by three stockholders of the company. The complainants allege that H. O. Jackson, president of the organization and who is in full control of the company, has squandered $75,000 of its assets and at the present time owes the company $125,000 for stock held by him. He also is declared to have borrowed $48,000 from the concern.

AN APPEAL TO THE PUBLIC

By W. J. Bryan on the Eve of Election—What the Democratic Party Stands For and What the Republicans.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Winchester, Ind., Oct. 31.—W. J. Bryan, the Democratic candidate, in winding up his tour today made public the following:

"As the campaign draws to a close, certain issues stand out clearly. The Democratic party attempts to inaugurate an era of honesty in politics by compelling the publication of campaign contributions before the election. It seeks to bring the government nearer to the people by securing the election of United States Senators by direct vote. It seeks to restore competition through legislation which will make a private monopoly impossible. It seeks to reconcile labor and capital by legislation which will bring employer and employe together in friendly co-operation, and to this end it proposes the creation of a Department of Labor with a Secretary of labor in the cabinet; an amendment to the anti-trust law which will exclude the labor organization from the operations of that law; the limitation of the writ of injunction so that it will not be issued in a labor dispute unless conditions are such as would justify an injunction even if there were no labor dispute, and trial by jury in cases of indirect contempt. It seeks to secure legislation which will create a guarantee fund sufficient to insure all depositors against loss. It seeks to secure a reduction of the tariff by gradual steps until the tariff laws will no longer be made in the interest of the few and at the expense of the rest of the people. The Democratic party, in other words, seeks to secure honesty in government through honest politics and popular government through direct elections. It desires to secure peace in industry, competition in trade, security to depositors, and justice to tax payers.

"The Democratic party appeals to the awakened conscience of the nation and the sense of justice in the human heart and to the growing desire for brotherhood.

"With a Democratic victory for the national ticket, with a Democratic Congress, and with the moral force of a popular verdict, I believe we can compel the Senate to yield to the expressed will of the people and permit the passage of the more urgent of the reforms.

"The Democratic Party offers the only prospect of remedial legislation, and while it does not go as far as some reformers would like to go, Democratic victory will secure as much of reform as is now attainable—in fact the only reform that is within reach. We have a right to expect therefore the co-operation of those who favor the reform set forth in the platform.

"The attempt to terrorize the American voter by the threat of a panic will not succeed. We have had three panics in forty eight years, the panic of 1873, the panic of 1893, and the panic of 1907, and two of these panics came under a high tariff, and each of them came under Republican presidents. Mr. Taft says that a panic will come if I am elected. Let him give bond that this panic will go if he is elected. When he says that a Democratic victory will bring a panic he expresses an opinion. When I say that a disastrous panic came last fall without waiting for a Democratic victory, I state a fact that cannot be disputed. Our platform presents a plan for the restoration of prosperity upon a permanent basis—a prosperity in which all will share. The Republican party has no plan that contemplates either the present relief or continued welfare of the people.

"The Republican candidate has the prestige that comes from the fact that his party is in power. He has the aid of an army of office holders; he has the support of all the monopolies and law defying trust; he has a large campaign fund, the source of which his committee refuses to disclose, and most of the leading newspapers are allied with him and the interests which he represents. I insist that it is not fair for the President to use his office—an office that belongs to all the people—as if it were a party assert or a personal asset and enter actively into the campaign. It offends the sense of justice and ought to arouse a protest from those who believe that in the selection of the chief executive the people should be absolutely free to choose whom they please."

DOESN'T BELIEVE IT SHERCLIFFE

Notorious Bandit's Wife Says Her Husband Has Not Been Caught.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 31.—"It must be a mistake. I do not believe Frank has been caught. He is too shrewd for a thing like that. I shall not believe it is him."

Mrs. Frank Shercliffe, wife of the alleged bandit fugitive under arrest at Knoxville, Tenn., declared today she believed it was not her husband held by the Tennessee authorities. The police say there is little doubt that the man arrested at Knoxville is Shercliffe. Shercliffe says he will not resist extradition to St. Paul, but refused to go to Colorado where he is under sentence for murder.

How to Get Strong.

P. J. Daly, of 1247 W. Congress St., Chicago, tells of a way to become strong; He says: "My mother, who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, that I feel it's my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complains. PARTIES CLAIM SWEEPING VICTORY

Democratic and Republican Managers Grow More Confident as Election Draws Near.

FAVORABLE FOR DEMOCRACY

Says Mack, Who Claims 33 Electoral Votes For Bryan—Hitchcock Places Figures For Taft at 325 Votes.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 31.—With only the trees, fountains and green lawns of Madison Square Garden separating their headquarters, the rival managers of the Republican and Democratic committees issued today final sweeping claims of victory. Against the 325 electoral votes claimed by Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock for Mr. Taft, Chairman Norman E. Mack, late today, set an estimate of 333 votes for Mr. Bryan.

The close of the campaign tonight found the Republican officers, in the lofty Metropolitan tower, and the Democratic officers, in the Hoffman House just across the park, humming with activity. Both headquarters are to remain open tomorrow and there will still be many details to be attended to on Monday. But Chairman Mack and Hitchcock feel that their hardwork is ended and that little remains now but the casting and counting of the ballots. State and county Chairmen have been entrusted with the work of getting out the votes in their respective communities. Chairman Mack's estimate of votes for Mr. Bryan does not differ greatly from his previous statements. He includes Maryland, Delaware and Missouri "in the solid South" and claims seventeen of the States classified by Mr. Hitchcock as "sure for Taft." These include such States as New York, Ohio, Indiana, Kansas, Nebraska, etc.

Bryan and Taft were still on the go tonight, in carrying out their record-breaking itineraries. Taft wound up at Rochester practically an entire week of campaigning in New York State. Bryan, who spent the first four days of the week in this State, spoke tonight at Chicago, enroute to his home at Lincoln.

There was a big parade of merchants and workers today in New York City in behalf of Taft. The long procession was reviewed by James S. Sherman, Republican candidate for Vice President; by Secretary of State Root, who spoke here tonight, and by Chairman Hitchcock.

New York State, as always, has been one of the great storm centres of the campaign and tonight is claimed by both old parties for their respective National and State tickets. The Republican managers are apparently confident that Taft will have a substantial plurality and in the past week have grown more bold in their claims as to the re-election of Governor Charles E. Hughes, although they admit that his vote will fall far short of that polled for the presidential candidate.

Republican State Committeeman Ward went so for today as to say that Judge Taft would carry Greater New York.

The Democrats have claimed ever since the re-nomination of Governor Hughes, in the face of opposition from certain leaders in his party that the Governor will be defeated. They are willing to admit that he has made gains during the last two weeks of his campaign, but assert that Lieutenand Governor Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler will be victorious by a large plurality and that Bryan will receive the electoral vote of the State by a comfortable margin.

Democratic Chairman Mack in giving his forecast tonight, declared that it meant a landslide for Mr. Bryan. He said:

"In my estimate of electorial votes for Bryan, I include, in addition to the 169 votes of the Solid South the following States: Colorado 5, Connecticut 7, New York 39, Kansas 10, New Jersey 12, North Dakota 4, Oregon 4, Rhode Island 4, West Virginia 7, Wisconsin 13, Wyoming 3, Indiana 15, Idaho 3, Montana 3, Ohio 23, Nebraska 8, South Dakota 4; total 164.

"California and Illinois I place in the doubtful column, but from reports I have received from those States, the chances are extremely in favor of their being included in the landslide for Bryan.

"Maryland and Delaware I include, of course, in the solid South."

Mr. Mack will leave for Buffalo tomorrow night and after voting will return here to receive the returns election night at headquarters.

Chairman Mack said tonight:

"The Democrats have conducted a clean, open campaign. Our candidate for President, William J. Bryan, has conducted an almost superhuman canvass, which appeals not alone to our party pride. The plain people understand what he, his party and its platform mean. We have stood in the open. Our cause is just and right and must survive. The masses have given with alacrity contributions to defray our necessary expenses.

"The Republicans have appealed to the offspring and beneficiaries of high tariff—the trusts and combinations—for funds to run their campaign, and for what else we know not, because they have refused to take the people into their confidence and publish the names of contributors, the amount given or the total amount contributed.

"I believe a Democratic victory is sure. The party is united and a united effort throughout has been made for the success of the entire Democratic people. From ocean to ocean and from the Lakes to the Gulf a Democratic victory is in the air."

Republican headquarters, National State, maintained today the same confidence as during the last two weeks. When shown the statement of Mr. Mack charging that negotiations have been going on for ten days between Chairman Hitchcock for the Republican National committee and the Sandard Oil Company Mr. Hitchcock dictated the following:

"The assertion that there have been negotiations between myself and the Standard Oil Company in reference to campaign contributions is absolutely untrue. So far as my knowledge goes there has been no contribution to our campaign fund by any person connected with the Standard Oil Company, nor has any such person been solicited to contribute."

Mr. Hitchcock said of the charges that he had no apprehension as to their effect that he had received additional information today from Ohio and Indiana which accentuated the opinion held by him that those States are absolutely certain for the National and State tickets. Mr. Hitchcock said that he had not been so sure about Indiana's plurality until the last two weeks. The Montana vote will be close, Mr. Hitchcock says, but it will be Republican. He also repeated his claim about Nebraska and said his most recent reports from Kentucky indicated that the outlook for a Republican victory there was decidedly encouraging.

Mr. Hitchcock said he never had any doubt about New York being for Taft and Hughes. He said New Jersey would give a satisfactory plurality for Taft and Sherman.

The Republican Congressional committee, with headquarters in this city, reports, according to Secretary Loudenslager, that the Republican majority in the 61st Congress will be greater than first anticipated. It is believed that the increase will come from several Southern States.

The New York State campaign closed tonight so far as the Democrats are concerned, but Governor Hughes is scheduled to make ten speeches in Greater New York Monday night.
